

TRISHA CHAUDHARY

INTERN PROFILE

June 2016—August 2016

WHAT WAS YOUR POSITION WITH WELLSHARE?

Communications & Development Intern

WHERE DID YOU GROW UP?

Columbia, Missouri (but I also lived in Memphis, TN, Hyderabad, India, and Allentown, PA)

DID YOU HAVE ANY NOTABLE CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES?

I wanted to be a veterinarian, but much to my dismay that dream was snuffed when I realized I'm allergic to almost every animal with hair. After that, I spent the majority of my elementary school telling anyone who would listen that I wanted to be a lawyer.

WHICH BOOKS DID YOU MOST RECENTLY READ?

The Bell Jar by Sylvia Plath and The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander

WHERE CAN YOU BE FOUND ON A LONG WEEKEND?

Adventuring somewhere! I love taking weekend trips out of town (Chicago, Milwaukee, etc.) and exploring the Twin Cities. I'm on a hunt to find all the great brunch places in the cities and also to explore all of the biking greenways in Minneapolis. I love going to Uptown and Lake Calhoun and taking advantage of everything the Cities have to offer.

"I'm interested in learning more about how the Community Health Workers became involved with WellShare and what types of projects they focus on both domestically and internationally."

- Trisha

"I hope to get to meet and hear the stories of Community Health Workers who've worked with WellShare and to also do tasks that assist the company in any way possible."

GET TO KNOW MORE ABOUT TRISHA!

Trisha is a rising junior at the University of Minnesota – Twin Cities studying Economics with minors in Public Health and Political Science. She is a teaching assistant for a Public Health course and discovered WellShare after two of WellShare's community health workers (CHWs) came and spoke to her class on child spacing. WellShare's presentation was one of Trisha's favorites and motivated her to reach out and get involved with WellShare.

Trisha is a part-time intern this summer assisting in a wide variety of communications, development, and design tasks for WellShare. She has helped create and update WellShare's impact sheets, volunteer profiles, and blog posts.

On campus Trisha is also involved with the Admissions Ambassadors (tour guides) and the College of Liberal Arts Student Board.
